Intro. Provide a brief overview of volunteering with Headway and the services that our social support groups provide - (Panel member prompt)

Our volunteers play a crucial role in our social support groups across Gippsland. They are not only there to lend a hand when required, but they start conversations, offer companionship and share their skills with the group. We have social support groups across Gippsland that run for about five hours once a week from about 10am.

The activities in social support groups take on throughout the year are shaped by the participants. Activities in social support groups take on throughout the year are shaped by the participants. Activities may include crafts, cooking, guest speakers, barbecues, outings in Gippsland to tourist spots, coffee catch-ups and much more.
